Blessings

One of our foreign born students who experienced Thanksgiving for the first time mused, "I know why the United States is such a blessed country, because they have a national holiday to remember to thank God."

No matter what faith each of you follow or if you follow no faith, we are truly grateful for the blessings that you, the Carroll County community, have showered on us.

Tutors report back to us that they receive so much fulfillment from their students.

Students report back that they receive so much support and encouragement from their tutors while improving their reading, writing and math skills as well as achieving desired citizenship if needed.

As a non-profit we rely on numerous volunteers throughout the community for fund raising and financial support. We realize we are fortunate to live here.

Thank you Carroll County

Now that you have read this, remember those who cannot.

Where were our students born?

At the Literacy Council we see people from all over the world but the majority of our students are from the United States. Carroll County has a high rate of people finishing high school, but there are people in our community who have had challenges that have prevented them from reaching their full potential. These challenges can be physical, mental or emotional. We do have students born and bred in Carroll County who need help with reading, writing and math.

We also have students born and bred in other areas of Maryland and from other states where the educational systems are not as strong as ours but who live in Carroll County. Many people are surprised that services such as ours exist to help adults on a one-to-one tutoring basis.

No fees, no stress, no pressure. Just neighbor helping neighbor.

We are proud that we also offer services to a wide variety of students from all over the world who live in Carroll County. Many desire to become citizens as well as improving their English skills
